From 1811 to the Present

This book is an important addition to the county's history and contains records and notations since 1811 for 309 cemeteries, including 197 white cemeteries and 112 black cemeteries. Over 100 very old, private cemeteries plus numerous church and denominational cemeteries are listed. The city cemeteries of Bolton, Byram, Clinton, Edwards, Raymond, Terry, Utica, and Jackson (Greenwood, Cedar Lawn, and Beth Israel) are listed. Highlights of history from each of these cemeteries and its people are given. The book contains an alphabetized family name index and a table of contents chronologically arranged according to founding dates of each cemetery.

JAMES STEELE FAMILY CEMETERY

Located: Near the Elijah Reed Cemetery in Reedtown Community between Utica and Carpenter, MS (S30T3NR4W).

First Grave: 1830

Remarks: This cemetery was recorded by Sylvia Opiela, who played in it as a child growing up in Reedtown. She said that there were two marble vaults, but that when she came back to the area years later, both slabs were missing from the vaults. Shortly after she started asking landowners about the stones, the sides and ends of the vaults also disappeared. The two vaults were located on a hill within sight of the Reed Cemetery. They were surrounded by numerous graves marked only by rocks, believed to be graves of slaves on the large Steele Plantation. James Steele and his wife Mary had at least two children, a daughter Frances who married Peter Stubbs (buried at Utica), and a son, James Jr. Other than Stubbs descendants in the Utica area, there are probably no descendants of the Steeles around Utica and Carpenter. Since Peter Stubbs was married at least three times (two wives are buried in Utica), Frances Steele Stubbs could have outlived her husband and remarried or moved from the area.

JOHN RAGAN FAMILY CEMETERY

Located: Almost a mile off Oakley road on the old Ragan Plantation (now owned by the Goode Family) between Fairchild Crossing and Oakley in central Hinds County, MS (S27T4NR3W).

Recorded: By Mary Collins Landin, on 8 May 1979

First Grave: 1830

Remarks: This old abandoned cemetery is behind the old Ragan homestead and in the edge of a soybean field. At one time a public lane to the Ragan house passed by the cemetery, many years ago. There are several visible unmarked graves.

WILLIAM CARNES FAMILY CEMETERY

Located: Off Belknap Road between Learned and Edwards in Hinds County, MS, in woods about a mile from the Belknap house (S23T5NR4W).

Recorded: By Mary Collins Landin, on 13 Apr 1979

First Grave: 1831

Remarks: The Belknaps told me that when they bought the farm many years ago that the Carnes gravestones had been piled up by the previous owner and broken. These gravestones and vaults are massive, indicating that the Carnes Family was very wealthy. Mr. Belknap was told that the stones were brought up the Mississippi River and hauled by oxcart to the cemetery. There are supposed to be 12 Carnes graves: Mr. and Mrs. Carnes, her father, her brother, and eight of their children. The stones are so faded that now only a few could be read. Most of the children and grandchildren of the Young Family are buried at Edwards.

UTICA TOWN CEMETERY

Located: On Main Street in downtown Utica, MS (S16T3NR4W).

Recorded: By Mary Collins Landin, on 23-30 Aug 1978 (with some updating after that time).

First Grave: 1831

Remarks: This cemetery has over 1700 graves, over 400 of which are unmarked. It is older than 1831, since Utica was already a village in 1815, and had established churches by 1829. Many gravestones were destroyed by Union soldiers during the Civil War when they were encamped in Utica. A small slave section exists at the front of the cemetery along Main Street, and all of those graves are unmarked.
